MEETINGS & PRIVATE PARTIES

BODYSGALLEN HALL

Beautifully situated in over 200 acres of parkland on a hill to the south of Llandudno, Bodysgallen Hall is far removed from the pressures of everyday life. Here meetings can take place in an atmosphere of peace and tranquillity conducive to top level decision making.

Bodysgallen Hall is a 17th century country house which was rescued from neglect and restored by Historic House Hotels, who opened it as an hotel in 1981.

There are nineteen beautifully appointed bedrooms in the house, and those guests who require greater privacy may prefer to stay in one of sixteen cottage suites in the grounds. Bedrooms are individually designed and all have private bathrooms, colour television, DVD player, trouser press, hairdryer, radio and direct dial telephone. Cottage suites have spacious sitting rooms which can be used for small meetings and private parties.

THE WYNN ROOM

Close to the hotel is the imaginatively restored 18th century stable block skilfully converted into a split level building capable of holding 40 people in each of two self-contained rooms. This is an excellent venue for meetings, exhibitions, product launches, cocktail parties and other social occasions. There are two separate entrances, cloakrooms and a kitchen.

The Upper Room is ideal for meetings and is Wi-Fi accessible with The Lower Room suitable for receptions, cocktail parties, luncheons or dinners. There is also the Tack Room for small meetings and use as a syndicate room. All conference equipment is available on request, and our experienced staff are on hand to ensure that your meetings will run smoothly.

THE SURROUNDINGS AND NORTH WALES

Bodysgallen Hall is easily accessible from Chester and Manchester, and is only 3.25 hours by direct train from London. It is situated in an area noted for beautiful scenery and Welsh history. For those with the time to spare visits can be arranged to castles such as Caernarfon, Harlech, Conwy and Beaumaris. National Trust properties such as Plas Newydd on Anglesey and Penrhyn Castle are within easy reach, and the world famous gardens at Bodnant are worth visiting in every season of the year.

Excursions to the cultural and scenic sights of North Wales – its castles, museums and gardens – can be arranged on a self drive or guided basis.

SMALL MEETINGS AND PRIVATE DINING

As well as the Tack Room there are several sitting rooms in the cottage suites which can be used for small private meetings, cocktail parties or as syndicate rooms.

In the Hall the Library and the first floor Drawing Room are suitable for private entertaining, and either of the dining rooms can be used for a lunch or dinner party for up to 40 people.

SPORTING AND LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Delegates have unlimited use of the Bodysgallen Spa with its spacious 50' indoor swimming pool, whirlpool spa bath, steam room, sauna, gymnasium, relaxation room and beauty treatment rooms. There is a club room for drinks and light meals and a sun terrace.

The hotel has its own tennis court and croquet lawn and there are four golf courses within ten minutes drive. We can arrange horse riding and pony trekking and a variety of water sports including dinghy sailing, board sailing, canoeing, cruising and windsurfing, sea and river fishing.

WEDDINGS

Bodysgallen Hall provides a beautiful setting for smaller wedding parties. The Upper Wynn Room is licensed for marriage ceremonies and is capable of hosting up to fifty people. The Terrace looking towards Conwy Castle and Snowdonia is the perfect setting for drinks receptions (weather permitting), together with the ideal venue of the Morning Room in the main hotel for wedding breakfasts and receptions.

BODYSGALLEN SPA CLUB

Bodysgallen Health and Fitness Spa has been converted from the original stone built farm. It contains a large swimming pool, spa bath, steam room, relaxation room, 5 beauty rooms, gymnasium, and a club room where meals and drinks are served. Hotel guests have unlimited use of the spa during their stay.
