Weddings and Civil Partnership Ceremonies

The Setting

Approached by a long winding drive passing through parkland of the 220 acre estate, Bodysgallen Hall is set in an idyllic spot offering enchantment and romance, commanding the hillside while enjoying stunning views towards Snowdonia and medieval Conwy.

This Grade 1 17th century hall is a haven of peace – a photographer's dream and yours – to capture memorable moments of your day.

Attention to detail

With our experience and attention to detail, we provide a dedicated service with a personal touch, helping you at every stage of the planning process, and allowing you to enjoy the excitement and anticipation of this special occasion.

Perfect Photo Opportunities

With over 200 acres of gardens and woodland – both manicured and wild – walled gardens, follies, a rockery with cascade, woodland walks, sweet-smelling herb filled parterre and your special place to celebrate.

The Intimate Ceremony Celebrations for up to 15 guests

The upstairs Drawing Room is oak paneled with a magnificent central fireplace and two alcoves.

Approached by a few steps from the first floor landing, it offers an informal yet elegant atmosphere.

A bride in a white gown and floral crown stands in a rustic wedding venue. The room features a vaulted ceiling with dark wooden beams and white walls. In the foreground, several white chairs are arranged, each with a large, light-colored fabric bow tied around the back. A wooden screen with intricate carvings stands behind the bride. To the left, a tall silver vase holds a bouquet of flowers and lit candles. A framed picture hangs on the wall to the left, and a mirror is on the wall behind the bride. The overall atmosphere is warm and elegant.
